

appears from the original envelope returned from the United States Postal Service marked "Addressee Unknown", labelled "Exhibit 6", and prayed to be made a part hereof, and the return of the Sheriff of Baltimore City already filed herein.

SIXTH: That notwithstanding the above, service was effected upon those persons named in paragraph FIFTH above pursuant to the terms of Maryland Rule 111.

SEVENTH: That the time provided for the Respondents, Alice Giles Jones, James Giles, Edna Jones, Arwilder Morgan Furr, Ethel Morgan Spencer, Gilmore Morgan and Junior Morgan, to respond to this action has expired, and no responsive pleadings have been filed by said Respondents.

TO THE END, THEREFORE:

1. That the Petition for Sale in Lieu of Partition be taken Pro-Confesso against the Respondents, Alice Giles Jones, James Giles, Edna Jones, Arwilder Morgan Furr, Ethel Morgan Spencer, Gilmore Morgan and Junior Morgan.
2. That your Petitioner, George Gilbert Giles, be permitted to take testimony before this Court to support the allegations of the Petition.
3. And for such other and further relief as to this Court may seem just and proper.
